

The New York Times

© 2011 The New York Times

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 2011

WHAT'S ON TODAY

9 P.M. (Travel) PARANORMAL CHALLENGE In this new series Zak Bagans of "Ghost Adventures" invites two teams of ghost hunters to spend the night locked down in an infamously haunted location, where they'll be given high-tech gear to investigate paranormal activities. Afterward, the teams present their findings to Mr. Bagans and a panel of three experts. The winner goes home with bragging rights. The spookfest begins at Rolling Hills Asylum in East Bethany, N.Y., once known as the Genesee County poor farm, an institution where orphans, widows, the disabled and minor criminals were forced to work in exchange for housing and food.